

Hockley Centre Parking

See map overleaf. Parking areas are marked with a blue P and NO PARKING where you see a BLACK CROSS.

OLD PUMPHOUSE, MIDDLEWOOD WAY - PARKING ON SUNDAYS ONLY. All the Spaces are owned by the Old Pumphouse. We may use these on Sundays only. Not on weekdays, Saturdays or Bank Holidays

BEHIND THE LUKNER SHOP: Room for 6 cars only. Please note that there is not much space for manoeuvring cars.

WOBURN COURT FLATS, TOWERS ROAD: AT NO TIME CAN WE PARK THERE. Parking spaces are privately owned by residents.

WOODLANDS NURSING HOME, MIDDLEWOOD WAY: ONLY in the top car park on the right hand side right at the top of the drive.

SURROUNDING STREETS: You may park on the local streets without yellow lines but NOT in the bus stop, or in Venture Way opposite the building or in Hockley Paddock. We respectfully ask that you do not block any driveways as we do strive to remain on good terms with our neighbours.

POYNTON CIVIC HALL CAR PARK: Public car park - a 5 min walk.

DISABLED BADGE HOLDERS: The Hockley Centre has no designated disabled parking spaces of its own, but you may park for up to three hours on the local streets, except in places where you are likely to cause a danger to pedestrians or traffic congestion (as stated in the blue badge scheme information booklet). Please do not park across driveways (even with the householder's permission), close to junctions or traffic lights, on pedestrian crossings or zig-zag markings or on yellow lines where there are adjacent kerb markings.
